I beg to report that on inspecting the passengers of the Steamer Ireland from that one Thomas McGrath aged 6 years was not manifested, that the ships manifest was not sworn to before the U.S. Consul at the port of embarkation as required by law. also that the purser failed to deliver the certificates of three Cattlemen that were on board.

The purser informed me that there were on board six Cabin and seven steerage passengers and three Cattlemen, they were all foreigners and I examined them, latter Mr. Wm

N.J. called for his family who arrived on the Caronia and was examined by me with a view to ascertain if he is the father of this children, he told me that he had six children, while Mrs.

five; it proved after that the 6 year old boy Thomas was brought over as a blind passenger.
The three attorneys were identified by their signatures & the record by the Stubs of the Certificate
